THE HONGKONG CRICKET TEAM FOR SINGAPORE.

The Cricket Team formed to represent Hongkong in the triangular contest at Singapore between Hongkong, the Straits Settlements, and Ceylon, will leave here this morning in the O. & S. steamer Thavos for Singapore. The energetic efforts of the Hon. Secretary of the Hongkong Cricket Club (Mr. A. K. Travers) to get together a team that will worthily represent a colony has been crowned with complete success, as the following list of names will show those who have followed the records of local cricket.

E. M. Blair, R.E.
C. S. Baill.

G. G. Boyle, R.A.
A. J. Campbell, 91st.
Captain Carden, R.A.

F. Lammert
Dr. Lawson
E. A. Rann
T. Sercombe Smith
Sergeant Clarke (captain)
Corpl. Rios, R.E. (spare man)

It will be seen by the number of garrisons there is in the above, General Barker has been very kind in the matter, and it is chiefly owing to his complaisance that the colony has been able send an efficient team. The Team have about. Lieut. Blair as their captain, and they could

They have made a wiser choice. The community here will watch their performance at Singapore with much interest, and feel no little confidence that they will be able to give a good account of themselves.

VICTORIA REGATTA.

FIRST DAY, 12th December.

The Victoria Regatta opened yesterday, and as favoured, at any rate so far as spectators were concerned, with splendid weather. From a seaman's point of view, there was doubtless a good deal to be desired. In the early part of the day there was a rather stiff breeze blowing from the corner, while the water was choppy and conclusions in the extreme. Towards about 1900, when the water was comparatively constant, and the Regatta itself, taking it as a whole, should be inclined to think that it fell rather the record of previous years in the matter of interest. That many of the races were well contested and that certain records as regards time were really good, it would be absurd to deny, but taking it as a whole, especially from the spectator's point of view, no one can agree that the 1890 Regatta was not lacking in interest. It is owing to the competitors. The sooner the rising generation of oarsmen get rid of the notion that by protitling for a fortnight they can enter for any event and give a good account of it, the better, and the sooner some w of our older and better tried carmen, who all complete, think more of rowing as a sport

 than as a medium for pothunting, the better prize it is. That yesterday's Regatta was a success, as far as the rowers are concerned, is no subject for the competitors to affirm, but that it is more than a shadow of its predecessors it would be as ridiculous to assert. Another word the way of fact-finding and we hope to have
 For the individual gentlemen who gave their time and interest in the attempt to render the programme a success, such adjudges, starters, etc., we have nothing but praise, but we might have a word of advice to the committee in charge
 the general arrangements. In this department the arrangements were very good.

The following programme officiated: Judges,

Louisie being second and the Engineers last, the half mile, the Engineers put on the pace and quickly came up level with the second boat. These two boats then raced together and increased the lead between themselves and the third boat about one length. The Engineers were the last of the Louisie and took second place, and although the Louisie put on a spurt she finish they were unable to regain their position. The Argyll maintained their lead to the finish, winning by about a length and a half, a margin dividing second and third boats. Time, 17.50 seconds.
